

Duxbury Boy Scouts, followed by Cub Scouts, with flag bearers in lead.

Bringing up the rear were many horseback riders and this pony cart.

For the first time the Intermediate School Band marched in the Memorial Day Parade. Directed by Mr. Gosciminski, the group showed great talent.

MEMORIAL DAY

The Memorial Day parade was formed at the Myles Standish Cemetery at 10 a.m. Monday and proceeded through Hall's Corner down Depot St. to the First Parish Church where annual exercises were held.

The program at the church began at 10:45 a.m. with Commander Robert Cline of the Duxbury American Legion giving the opening address. Chaplain Paul Swanson read the Legion prayer and was soloist.

Joseph Gilmore, post historian read General Logan's Order. Kip Keith of DHS gave the "Gettysburg Address." The main address was given by the Rev. Oren Peterson of the First Parish Church.

The Duxbury Post 223 conducted ceremonies at the following cemeteries: Ashdod Cemetery, Dingley Cemetery, North Duxbury Tomb, the Honor Roll at Legion Hall, Blue Fish River Bridge, St. John's Church Cemetery and Standish Cemetery.
